FREE RANGE HUNTING WITH A REPUTABLE OUTFITTER: PETER THORMÄHLEN

Thormählen & Cochran Safaris was established in 2000 when Texan clients, Charles and Stacey Cochran, joined as partners. Today, Peter Thormählen oversees the safari business for 24 years – dividing his time between South Africa and Namibia. Peter has extensive experience in big game and plains game hunting in Africa and accompanies many clients to various African countries like Cameroon, Ethiopia, Tanzania, Zanzibar, Uganda, Chad, Liberia, CAR and Zambia. He received the DSC Outfitter of the Year award in 2010 and the SCI International Professional hunter of the Year award in 2018. He is as enthusiastic about hunting as the very first day he started hunting and surrounds him with a great team of professional hunters and personnel.

Thormählen & Cochran Safaris focus on FREE RANGE HUNTING AREAS. It was the basis on which the company was build and we will continue to seek new and exciting free range hunting opportunities for our current clientele and future hunters. We also cater for every client's special safari needs and offers sightseeing opportunities to our hunters and observers.

Looking forward meeting you and guiding you on an adventure of a lifetime!

WHY THORMÄHLEN & COCHRAN

We have been around for quite a while and built an outstanding reputation, offering free range concessions.

Our professional hunters and staff are kind, experienced and have a passion for hunting.

We are solid, trustworthy, have in-depth knowledge of nature, conservation, and client expectations.

CONSERVATION

Hunters provide funds for conservation and play an important role in managing the size of animal populations and the environment in which the animals thrive. Thormahlen & Cochran Safaris believe in the upliftment of the standard of living, youth education, and creating mutual benefits of coexistence between people and wildlife. Clients can also donate to the Conservation Fund for Thormählen & Cochran at Conservation Force (www.conservationforce.org), and the donation can be used as a tax deduction.

A FREE RANGE SAFARI IN SOUTH AFRICA

Due to its variety of game, South Africa is a premier hunting destination. Thormählen & Cochran Safaris specializes in hunting on free range Government Reserves – giving every hunter an opportunity to hunt in an unfenced, more challenging environment. Concessions are malaria free, not over-hunted and offers a variety of excellent trophy quality and spectacular views. Accommodation: comfortable safari camps. Arrival airport: Johannesburg (OR Tambo).

ACCOMMODATION

Thormählen & Cochran hunts on Government Reserves which are strictly protected for the sole use of authorised hunters like you. Camps are just outside the Reserves and cater for comfort and African cuisine. It consists of brick-built buildings or thatched roof safari units; each camp has its own, unique ambiance.

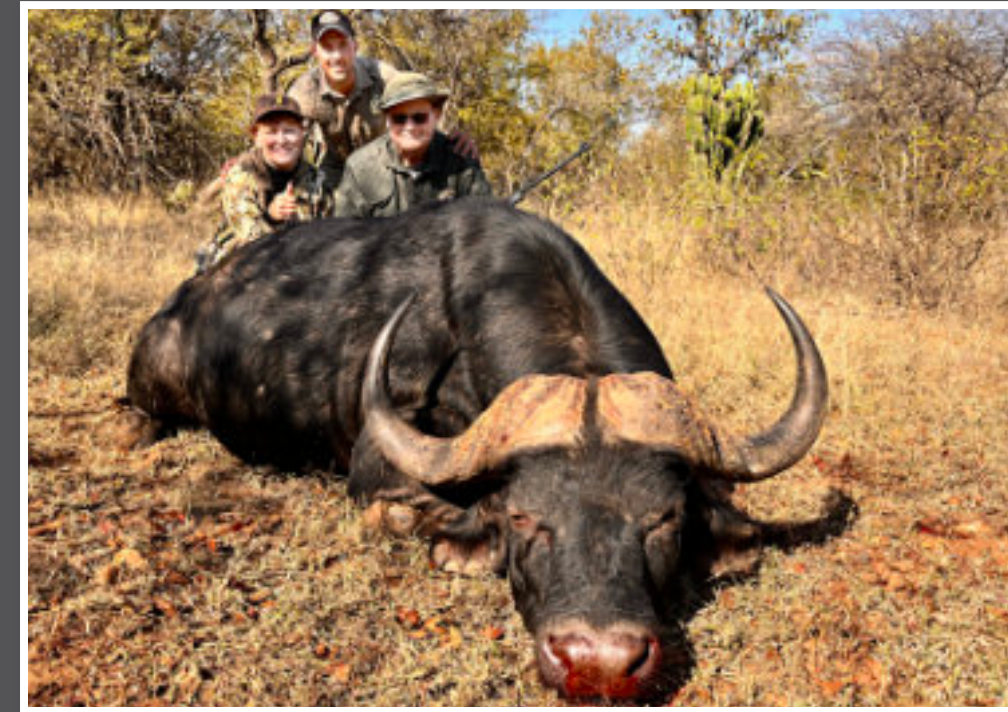

ACCOMMODATION

It is important to communicate your food/drink preferences to us – we will do our best to cater for your needs.

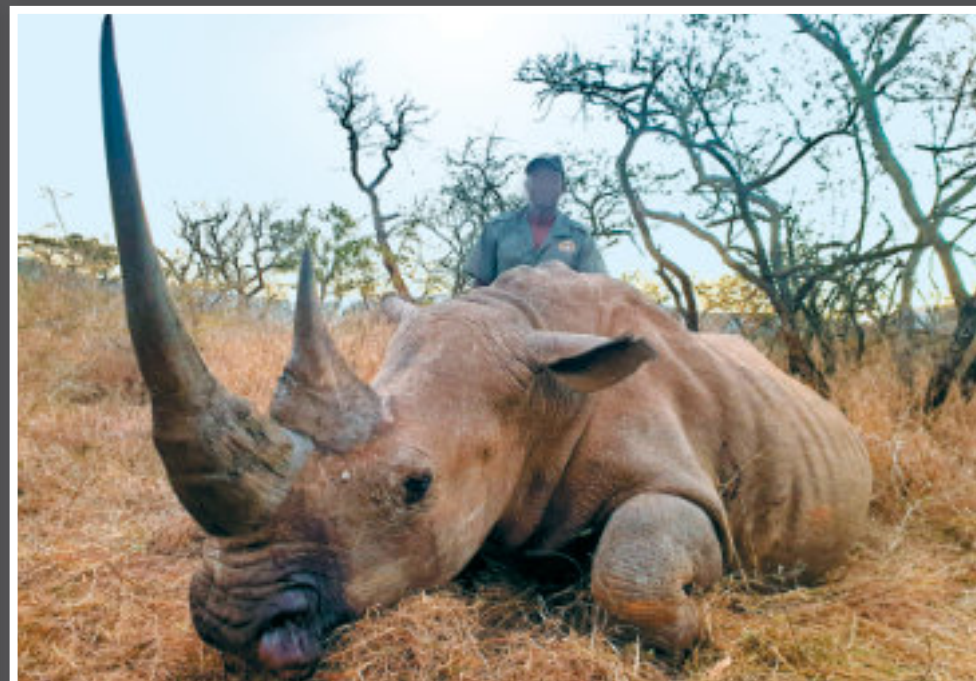

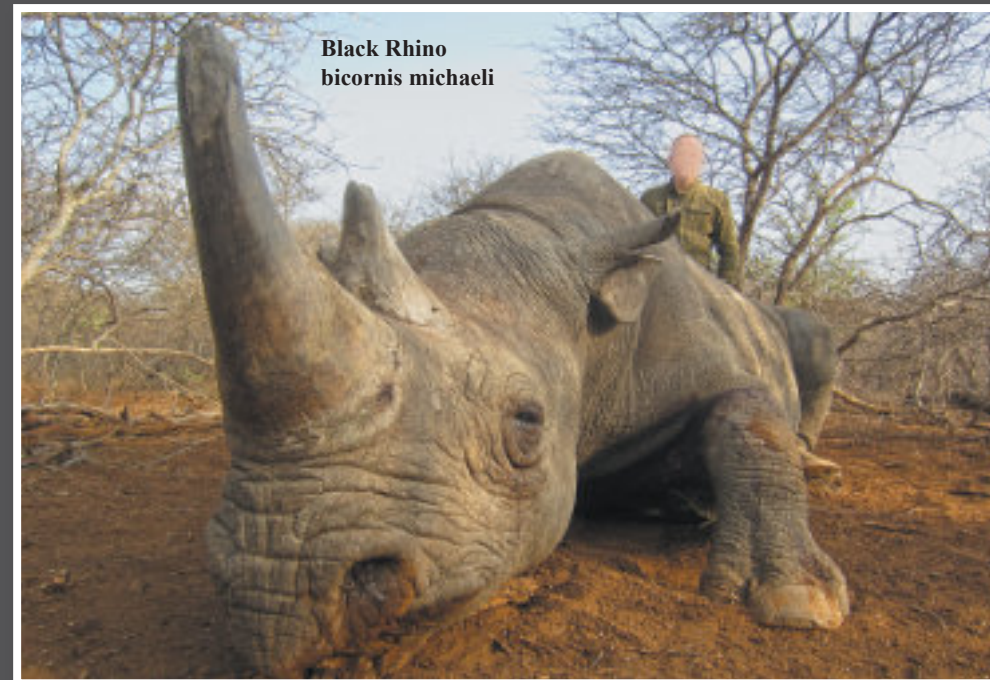

We look forward to welcoming every hunter to a warm and inviting atmosphere, friendly staff and traditional homestyle cooking while experiencing true South-African hospitality.
